Editorial

Adam Leavey, who has been delivering The Villager to residents in Elm Road, SSJ has other commitments and has decided to give up. We therefore seek someone who is willing to undertake this task plus three ancillary box drops locally. Please contact George Rust (850413 or distributionvillager@gmail.com).

We would like to thank Adam for his commitments over the last few years.

George

Dear Editor, I hope you can give some attention to the speeding and traffic volume through Sherborne St John.

As we all know speeding in the village is a continuous issue and with the work near the hospital the Cranes road - Chineham Lane route is used more and more as a shortcut causing dangerous situations for Sherborne's residents.

Currently there are just 2 traffic calming obstacles on Elm Road but only one is passed using above shortcut. Additional obstacles are much needed and although Chineham Lane falls outside the built-up area this road is not suitable for the 60mph speed limit and obstacles would be welcome here as well. This would not only reduce the speed on our roads but will also put people off using it as a shortcut and with that reduce the dangerous traffic through our village.

We're lucky that people haven't fallen victim but a deer on Chineham Lane wasn't and it shows how dangerous our village roads are.

Kind regards, Rudi Kruijsse

Church Matters June

June promises to be an eventful month in our national life. Not only do we have the special celebration of the Queen's birthday on the 12th, but also the much heralded referendum on our membership of the European Union on the 23rd. And that is not to mention the Wimbledon Lawn Tennis Championships at the end of the month! Perhaps that will provide something to look forward to when the political stuff becomes just too much to handle!

There is no doubt that the referendum poses difficult questions, not to mention whether it should be taking place at all. Personally I am not too keen on holding referenda as a method of government. For example who actually decides which issues merit decision by this method? Secondly we elect our politicians to take decisions on our behalf. They should be capable of doing this with regard to any issue we might face. Take, for example, the issue of going to war – that's a big one – and yet there was no referendum before war was declared in 1939. It is actually better that decisions are taken by those in the know, rather than by the whole nation – whether or not we like the outcome personally!

I do think that this is a particularly difficult decision and I would not presume to tell anyone how to vote. That is absolutely not my job! My brief is to preach the Gospel, not to become a political campaigner. But I am prepared to say that the desire of those who wish to leave the EU is understandable. What was a financial entity ("Common Market") with 9 members is moving towards a political union with more than 20 members. There are bound to be problems with that. The implications of the direction in which the EU is moving and the Brussels bureaucracy that accompanies that are bound to be tiresome. However does that necessarily mean that leaving it is the right thing to do?

Having been in it, if we now move out of the EU we enter uncharted territory. The outcome of such a vote is inevitably unknowable in advance. Both in terms of the financial consequences and in matters such as defence, borders and relationships with other nations, we cannot wholly predict where such a move will take us. There is therefore an argument for staying where we are – at least we do know about that. In general terms what is divisive is damaging; it will lead to more conflict and strife. Perhaps we should therefore accept the fact that we are part of Europe, stay there and fight for what we believe rather than opt out and have little or no influence.

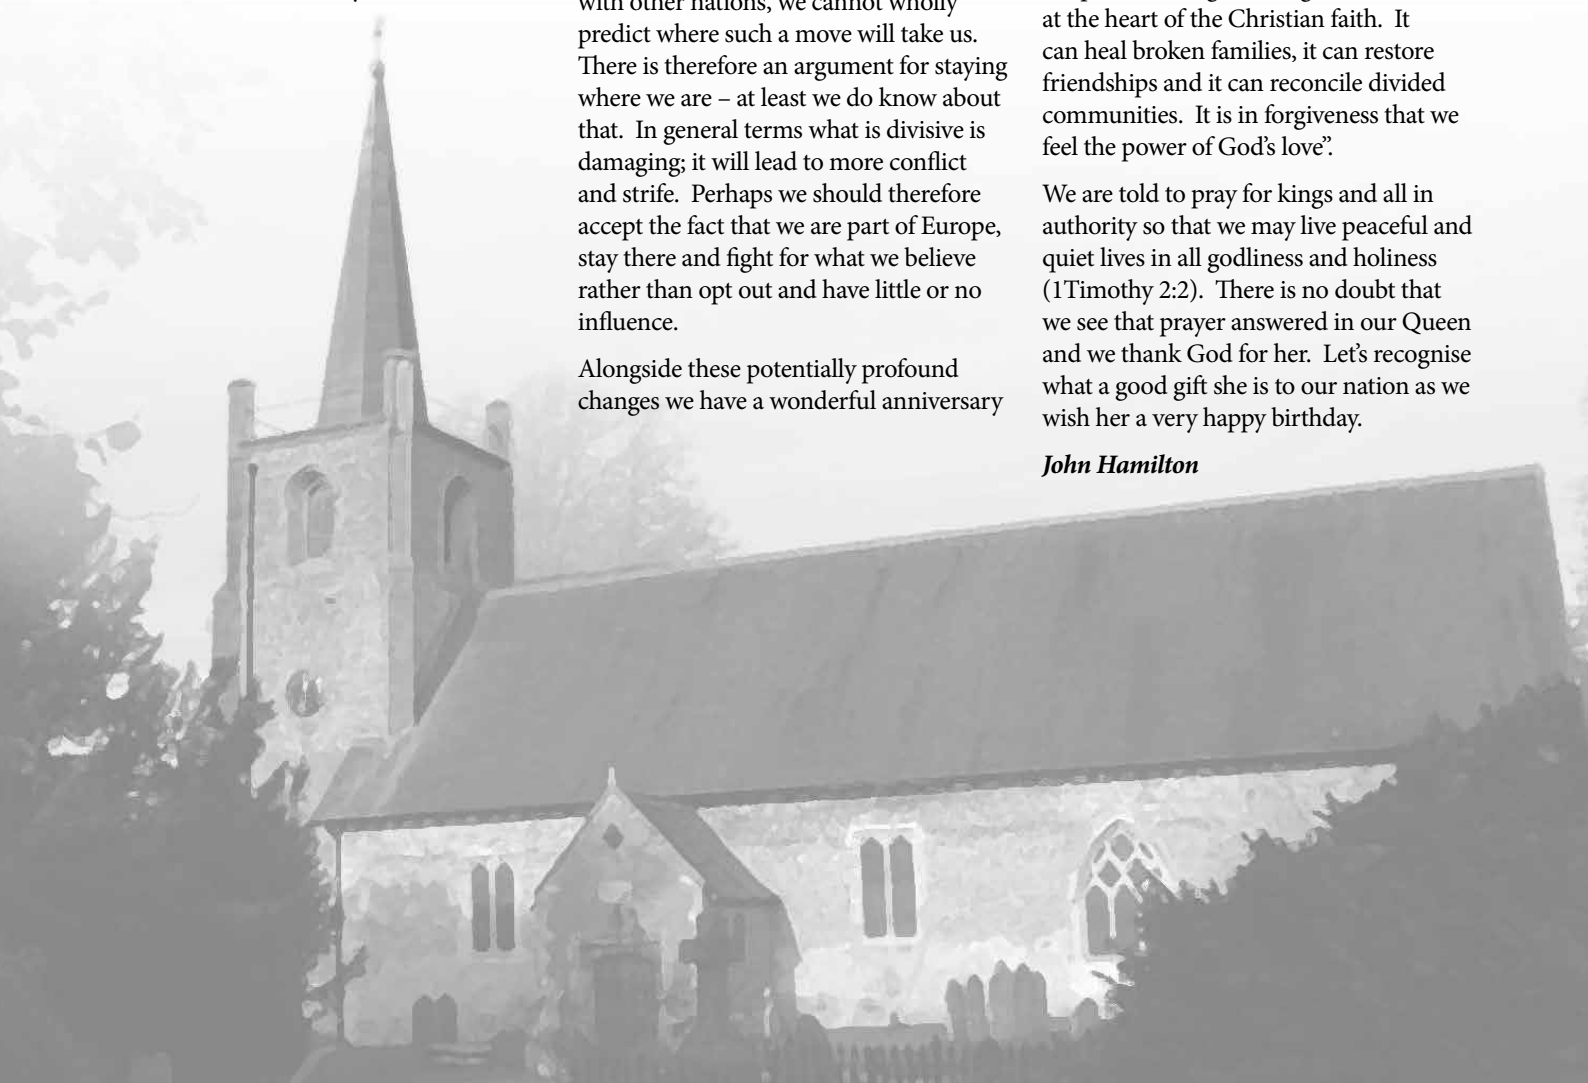

Alongside these potentially profound changes we have a wonderful anniversary to celebrate – the 90th birthday of Her Majesty the Queen, in the 64th year of her reign. In a world of so much change she stands as a bastion of continuity. Governments and their leaders come and go, their policies prevail or fizzle out, but the Queen is still there. There have been 12 Prime Ministers since the start of her reign and she has been a wise friend and advisor. Further, in a world of so much self-indulgence the Queen stands as an example of service. On her 21st birthday she stated her desire to serve people, not lord it over them "I declare before you all that my whole life, whether it be long or short, shall be devoted to your service" and she has been true to her word. She fulfils a large number of public engagements but she always takes an interest in the people she visits.

Finally, in a world of so much unbelief she stands for faith in Jesus Christ. She speaks of him in her annual Christmas message. In 2011 she said "God sent into the world a unique person – neither a philosopher nor a general (important though they are) – but a Saviour, with the power to forgive. Forgiveness lies at the heart of the Christian faith. It can heal broken families, it can restore friendships and it can reconcile divided communities. It is in forgiveness that we feel the power of God's love".

We are told to pray for kings and all in authority so that we may live peaceful and quiet lives in all godliness and holiness (1 Timothy 2:2). There is no doubt that we see that prayer answered in our Queen and we thank God for her. Let's recognise what a good gift she is to our nation as we wish her a very happy birthday.

Monk Sherborne Parish Council

This is the report from Cllr Stan Gibson, Monk Sherborne Parish Council:

Well here we are, the winter has come and gone, largely without event - at least we should be thankful for that. I must say what a lovely time for those with gardens it is now with the warmth of the sun. It has been most welcome!! Let us hope that this is a precursor for a warm summer, fingers crossed.

Weather and seasons apart, let's move on.

A brief resume of the portfolio's starting with my portfolio planning as at our meeting held on 16th March 2016

Applications Received

1. T 6/01007/HSE – Fairfield Cottage, Pamber Road, Charter Alley

Objection

Planning Decisions

Highways Transport and footpaths

– Work continues with Highways, all be it very slowly. A site meeting was held with a highways representative to identify the areas of immediate concern:

An inspection of Salters Heath Road and Monk Sherborne Road for any defects that meet the safety criteria laid out in the HCC inspection policy be carried out.

Pamber Road is due to be treated by the jet patched in April/May. This will repair any existing carriageway defects and will be marked up within the following 2/3 weeks.

Wykeford Lane drainage – Private ditches need to be cleared with grip/channels dug in to allow the water from the carriageway to drain away. Once this has been completed, Highways will be able to see if further works are required to stop water pooling on the road.

With regards to minor village works, the parish are to apply to be included in the 2017/18 parish lengthsman scheme. This is a scheme paid for by HCC that the parish can use to get minor works carried out within the parish that would not normally be a high priority for Hampshire County Council.

Playground – The annual play inspection has been undertaken, identifying the entrance gate requiring a stopper and the fencing supports rotting. Members present resolved to install a stopper as soon as possible. A close eye is to be kept on the post supports to ensure all remedial works are undertaken as soon as required.

Rural Policing & Neighbourhood

Watch – Cllr Harling presented a written report in her absence regarding policing issues within the parish – “Again it is heartening to know we are in a relatively low-crime area but that does not mean to say we should be complacent. It regularly comes to our attention about garden sheds and out-houses being broken into. Please secure such buildings and lock away all high-priced garden equipment. A lot of this type of theft is opportunistic so please do not give the potential thief that opportunity”. A request for a speed watch check is to be presented to the local PCSO for inclusion in the schedule.

To receive an update in relation to the opening of The Mole – Further to receipt of planning permission for the decking at The Mole and the application for a premise licence, we are advised that The Mole is due to open imminently. The Parish Council wishes the new owners success in their new venture.

Last but not least: The Council would like to express their thanks to those in the parish who have volunteered their help with jobs large and small within our parish.

Next meeting is Wednesday 20th July 2016

SHERBORNE ST JOHN PARISH COUNCIL

Elections

There has been no vote for the Parish Council as only 5 candidates were nominated for the 5 positions on the Parish Council and they have therefore all gone through unopposed. We welcome new Councillor Rose Cooper and would like to thank Becky Jones for stepping in as a temporary councillor up until the elections.

We would also like to thank our retiring Borough Councillor John Leek, who has worked hard to represent our interests for the last 15 years. Our new Borough Councillor is Mr Tristan Robinson, who is already familiar with many of the issues affecting Sherborne St John and has been attending Parish Council meetings for the last few months.

Neighbourhood Plan

There is not much more to report on the Neighbourhood Plan since last month. The draft plan and baseline report are still on the website with hard copies in the Village Hall and Chute Pavilion. We want to encourage as many people as possible to look at it and comment. Please send all comments on the form provided to the clerk at ssjclerk@gmail.com.

Chute Recreation Ground improvements

We are waiting for approval from BDBC on our preferred contractors for the necessary work on the tennis courts and we are hoping the work will start by the end of May. Essential repairs will also be carried out to the playground. We have received a few ideas for providing more play equipment for older children, but please continue to share any thoughts you might have with the clerk at ssjclerk@gmail.com. We are getting quotes for clearing the brambles and wooded area at the far corner of the ground to provide more space for play equipment.

Speedwatch

The Vyne Road Speedwatch volunteers are still regularly out encouraging drivers to keep to the speed limit as the exit and enter the village on Vyne Road. Those registered driving over the speed limit receive a letter from the Police, persistent offenders receive a visit! Feedback is that there has been a notable difference to drivers' speed coming into and out of the village. If you have concerns about speeding in your area and would like to get a team of volunteers together please contact the clerk.

We are also now looking at the possibility of obtaining a 3rd Speed Indicator Device for the village.

Buses

Stagecoach are currently reviewing the service between Basingstoke and Tadley, with a view to making improvements to the Number 2 bus.

Allotments

The battle with the rabbits continues and traps are being purchased to try to keep their numbers down!

Defibrillators

We are hopeful that these will be given the go-ahead shortly, with one to be kept outside the Chute Pavilion and one outside the Village Hall. They are pretty simple to use, but we are planning to organise some short courses to show anyone interested how to use them. Please let the Clerk know if you are interested.

Village Party

This year's Village Party is on 9th July on the village green. There will be music and entertainment, with everyone free to bring their own food, so no need to buy tickets this year.

General

Hampshire County Councillor Keith Chapman has reported that HCC is facing a 35% cut in its budget, needing savings of £350 million, so they are in the process of identifying where further savings could be made. There has also been a fire authority review which has improved services and reduced costs by the installation of new and very efficient equipment.

Basingstoke and Deane Borough Council's Local Plan should have been accepted by 26th May, with a 5.2 years land supply identified, which should reduce the pressure to find more sites for development for the time being.

If there are any matters or problems you wish to bring to the attention of the Parish Council, please contact Penny Mayo at ssjclerk@gmail.com

Natasha Rougier

Pamber Parish Council

Pamber Parish Council met on 9th May 2016 for the Annual, Monthly and Annual Parish meetings.

Annual and Monthly Meeting

Cllr. Chris Goss was re-elected chairman for the coming year and Cllr. Philip Kingston was re-elected vice chairman. The three councillors appointed to consider planning applications from the south ward were Councillors, Mary Hale, George March and David Snook. Councillor Snook was appointed as the Highways Representative from the south ward. Issues relating to the Lengthsman Scheme were discussed.

Annual Parish Meeting

Thank you to all who attended the Annual Parish Meeting. During a presentation by new Beat Officer Aimee Scott-Molloy parishioners heard details of two operations; one targeting the increase in doorstep crime and the other, Operation Safe4Me, to promote and enforce good behavior in the local area. Reports were also heard from the Chairman, Silchester school, St. Stephen's Hall (which was a far more positive report than last year's), the borough councillors and the county councillor. Issues relating to St. Stephen's Hall were discussed.

Highways

At the Annual Parish Meeting Ms. Scott-Molloy addressed the issue of speeding. She informed parishioners that complaints about speeding have been acknowledged and the local policing unit is trying very hard to get this resolved but with little success. At the request of the public, the speed van will be brought to the area between 7-9am and the local policing unit will try their best to get an external traffic team to monitor roads with limits above 30mph. If anyone would be interested in getting the SpeedWatch scheme up and running please contact the clerk, as when the parish council attempted to set this up there were not enough volunteers.

Sherborne St John Church of England Primary School

The summer term is now in full swing, and the sun came out in time for our May Festival, which meant that we could have a relaxed evening enjoying the barbeque and the display of Maypole and Country Dancing from Class 3. Thanks go to the School Association who organised the evening, and all the dancers who were 'feet-perfect' and managed to plait and unplait the maypole ribbons six times without a mistake! The next School Association event will be the Summer Fete on Saturday 25th June from 12 till 2pm so make a date for the diary!

The infants are studying 'Amazing Animals' this term, and did indeed have an amazing time when the School field had a visit from Millers Ark Farm. There were plenty of animals, many of which had young with them, including donkeys, goats, sheep, pigs, rabbits and ducks. The children were able to go into the pens and stroke the animals as they learnt about each of them. They also spent a day at Marwell Zoo, looking at more exotic and unusual animals – I believe that the meerkats were a great favourite! As part of the day there was an interactive workshop learning about Fur and Feathers which was very informative.

Summer means that the Tag Rugby season is drawing to a close with a number of tournaments, and congratulations go to the Year 5/6 Girls Tag Rugby team who were joint winners of the Girls Tag Rugby festival. This is a particularly good achievement as it was the first time they had played together as a team competitively and they won all 4 matches in their pool, and the semi-final: in the final the score was 5-5 after full time, and extra time could not separate the teams so a draw was declared. Our rugby teams have built up an excellent reputation over the last few years which is incredible given the size of our school compared to others – thanks to all those who support the teams and, of course, to the coaching skills of Miss Biles.

Our Year 6 children took their SATs tests during May and, as you may have heard in the media, these are based on the new curriculum which is a higher standard than in previous years. They have been working really hard and some have volunteered for extra study after school! They deserve to do well – we are proud of them all!

Sherbert – SSJ School Villager Correspondent

Hurray - The Mole has woken from its slumber and will be open for business this month!

Yes, it is finally happening. We have news on very good authority that The Mole Pub in Monk Sherborne will finally reopen its doors to the public.

New landlord, Keith Giles and his team have worked hard to turn the empty shell into a warm, contemporary, yet traditional environment both inside and out. The brand new bar, restaurant and pretty landscaped gardens will be open for business in June this year!

Keep your eyes peeled for your invitation to the launch party. It promises to be a fun night, complimentary food will be served and a Caribbean band will be playing tunes into the summer evening.

Keith is looking forward to welcoming everyone in the area and said, "We have a friendly and experienced team managing the front of house and a talented team in the kitchen will be headed up by popular local chef - Kevin Griffiths - who will be preparing home-cooked traditional favourites and modern French cuisine in the bar and restaurant areas."

From nearby Silchester, Kevin Griffith has over twenty years experience as a chef in the UK and Jersey. He has been Head Chef for the last ten years at various well-known local establishments as well as high profile restaurants in London. Kevin specialises in French cuisine and loves working with seafood. He will be joined by John Ashton who is originally from the Lake District, the two chefs have enjoyed working together previously.

The pub will be open 7 days a week from 11 am - 11 pm weekdays and 11 am - midnight on Fridays and Saturdays. It will serve morning coffee, tea and freshly baked cakes, plus afternoon teas with homemade scones and clotted cream. Locals can pop in for a pint and order drinks in the comfortable, relaxed side bar and order a simple bar lunch or evening meal from the locally sourced, seasonal menus.

Alternatively, you can eat in the restaurant and sample the freshly prepared lunch and supper menus, which will feature a wide variety of fresh fish delivered daily from Cornwall, plus meat and game from Aubrey Allen. These will be complimented by locally sourced home grown vegetables and a wide selection of cheeses from Laverstoke Park and France.

Please come and support The Mole - we have fought long and hard to save our local pub and can now enjoy what promises to be a wonderful meeting place and a fantastic pub and restaurant.

It is advised that tables are reserved in advance to avoid disappointment. Bookings - Tel: 01256 889911. The website will be up and running in June and can be found at www.themoleinn.co.uk

Brighton marathon

Charlotte Moore of Kiln Farm, SSJ recently completed her first marathon, at the tender age of 21. She ran the challenging Brighton marathon in an excellent time of 4 hours 15 minutes.

Charlie was running for Cancer Research UK and has collected more than £1,000 in sponsorship which is a wonderful achievement.

(Editor's note: Well done Charlotte)

Play croquet!

Now's the time to forget winter and take up a new sport. Come and try croquet!

We shall be holding an Open Day on Sunday 5th June at Down Grange between 10.00 am and noon and again from 2.00 pm until 4.00 pm. Just come along and join in!

You can play at Down Grange during the summer months with Basingstoke Croquet Club or the U3A Croquet Section.

Forget the silly stuff you hear on the television about croquet: it is a serious game that can be enjoyed by anybody. We play two types of croquet - "Association Croquet" is a game of skill and tactics, not unlike snooker on grass. And there is a simpler form - "Golf Croquet" which is easier to play and more of a social event.

If you would like to have a go - no previous experience required - come to Down Grange on a Saturday morning from about 10.00am. The lawn is up the hill to the left of the Toby Carvery entrance as you look at it.

For more details have a look at our website www.basingstokecroquet.co.uk or e-mail Charmian Harrison at info@basingstokecroquet.co.uk

Ranil's ramblings

An update from Westminster by Ranil Jayawardena, Member of Parliament for North East Hampshire.

Hasn't the last year just flown by? It was last May that I had the honour of being elected as the Member of Parliament for North East Hampshire. I would like to thank all of my supporters and indeed, everyone who voted on 7th May last year.

The twelve months since then have been frantic and this shows no sign of changing in the run up to the European Union referendum. I have thoroughly enjoyed engaging both with local people and with businesses over recent months to find out their views on this topic, and recently conducted an enjoyable question and answer session to debate views on this matter.

I have found the huge range of issues that are important to the constituents of this area particularly interesting. I'd like to use this opportunity to highlight just a couple of the actions I have been taking in Westminster to tackle these.

Last year, I was fortunate enough to be elected by my colleagues to be a member of the Home Affairs Select Committee. This has given me the opportunity to look into a range of issues that constituents have told me are crucial to them, such as policing and immigration.

Recently, I questioned the Home Secretary, Theresa May, on her efforts to control immigration and also enquired for further information on the real consequences of an EU-Turkey deal for immigration levels in the UK. I know that immigration is a key issue both locally and nationally, so it's a topic I will continue to raise in Parliament.

Over the course of the year, I have asked a number of questions of the Prime Minister, David Cameron, too. I was delighted to hear his positive response on further funding for RAF Odiham – and look forward to this moving this issue forward. Similarly, when I raised the issue of police funding, I was assured by the Prime Minister that funding for police will increase by £900 million in cash terms over the course of this Parliament. This includes funding for an additional 108 police officers across Hampshire, to ensure the increased security and safety of the people of North East Hampshire.

If you have an issue or concern, or would like more regular updates on my work in Westminster, please contact me by email: Ranil@TellRanil.com or by phone: 020 7219 3637.

Womens Fellowship

The May meeting was a talk given by the well known and much loved poet and prose writer Rudyard Kipling.

This is not quite true, however, as he died in 1936! The Speaker was in fact Mr Jonathan Jones, who provided us with an inspirational hour of recitations as well as facts about Joseph Rudyard Kipling, taking us through emotional highs and lows of his fascinating life.

Mr. Jones was dressed as Rudyard Kipling himself would have dressed, and did indeed look very well-turned-out, as they say. He took on the persona of Rudyard Kipling from the beginning, and only returned to being Mr Jonathan Jones at questions time. His poetry recitations were truly amazing; his entire talk was from memory, and the poems he recited included Gunga Din, The Man Who Would Be King, The Glory of the Garden, and From The Elephant's Child, to name a few.

Joseph Rudyard Kipling was thus called, Joseph being a family name on his Father's side. Rudyard, by which he is known, resulted in his parents picnicking beside the Rudyard Lake in Staffordshire, they being so entranced by the place. Rudyard was born on 30th December 1865 in Mumbai/Bombay to Alice MacDonald and John Lockwood Kipling. His mother came from a prestigious family, one of four sisters who were all worthy in their own right. His father John Lockwood was Principal and Professor of Architectural Sculpture at the newly formed Sir Jamsetjee Jeejeebhoy School of Art in Mumbai.

Rudyard had a sister Trixie and they lived an idyllic life in India, being told stories by their nurse out in the woods. When he was six years old, Trixie's and his life changed dramatically, when they were sent to England to a 'life of desolation' near Southsea, and he didn't see his parents for six months. The owner of the house, a Mrs Holloway, was a cruel and vindictive woman, who abused and bullied the children in her care. It was here that he learnt to tell 'stories' (sometimes lies) to keep out of as much trouble as was possible.

There existed some respite from this sordid life in his Aunt Georgiana, or Georgie, who took him and Trixie under her wing and where they stayed for a month each year at her house, The Grange, in Fulham. It was Aunt Georgie who had the diagnosis made of Rudyard's 'half blindness' and he had to wear thick lens glasses, giving him the nickname Jigger.

He returned to India when he was 16, arriving in Mumbai in 1882. He worked for local newspapers both in Lahore and Allahabad, the Civil and Military Gazette in Lahore being his 'mistress and most true love'. When a new editor arrived, he was asked to contribute short stories to the newspaper.

After some time in Liverpool and London, Kipling proposed to the sister of his good friend Wolcott Balestier, and they embarked upon a trip to the United States, and it was here that their daughter Josephine was born, followed by Elsie, born in 1896 and John, or Jack, in 1897. By this time they were back in England, living in Torquay, later Rottingdeane in Sussex where Josephine died. In 1902 they moved to Burwash in East Sussex where he remained for the remainder of his life.

Rudyard Kipling wrote more than four hundred poems and prose in his life. His home, Batemans, is now owned by the National Trust.

Mr Jones was thanked by Mrs Shirley Kale.

Probus hears about the Royal Air Force Mountain Rescue Service

Retired Royal Air Force Squadron Leader Chris Perkins from Kempshott, who was awarded the MVO by HM Queen at Windsor Castle last year, enjoyed a varied 35 year career with the boys in blue. Himself a member of the Probus Club of Basingstoke, the social organisation for retired professional and business managers, he gave a presentation to his colleagues tracing the origins of the Royal Air Force Mountain Rescue Service to the present day.

He became so involved with this sector during his time in uniform that he is today the chairman of the RAF Mountain Rescue Reunion Committee for Cymru-Wales.

There are records of RAF mountain rescues going back to 1938. By the close of WW2 twenty six teams had been established at RAF stations across the UK. With the reduction in the size of the RAF, only three now remain; at Kinloss in Scotland, Valley in North Wales and Leeming in Yorkshire.

All team members are volunteers and status is independent of rank. In the earliest days of the MRS, virtually all mountaineers used adapted military equipment. Members are now supplied with all weather Gore-Tex clothing and latest satellite navigation and communications kit. The ubiquitous Land Rover has been replaced with Toyota Hilux pickups and Mercedes-Benz Sprinter communications control vehicles. Today's rescue co-ordinator can track the progress of search parties with a computer link and watch their progress in real time on an electronic ordnance survey map.

Chris is proud of his association with MRS, "They have always been the people that go in on foot when the weather is atrocious and everything else has failed."

Information about the activities of the Probus Club is available on their website www.probusbasingstoke.webs.com or ring the Secretary Paul Flint for an informal chat on 07770 886521.

Bert's Blog

The world underfoot has turned blue with a certain perfume in the air - at least it has in the woods surrounding The Vyne NT. Normally I can forage where I like but, in there, you need to be led and you also need to be careful where you park your backside in case you crush any of these smelly flowers. There is a sign up saying leave any babies where they are as their parents will come back to collect them in their own time. I was seriously worried we would find wailing miniatures in the undergrowth but upon hearing a few hoots and a fluttering I realised they must mean the resident owls. The only miniatures we saw were little black lambs being staunchly protected by their rather scary horn headed mothers. The Mrs strolls slowly around clicking a small contraption which captures images which she will eventually replicate using the most difficult method she can involving pigment and water - she calls it painting, I call it boring. I kept trying to position myself so that I could present my good side in all of the photos in the hope I would appear in watercolour one of these days but she seems more interested in these smelly flowers at the moment. After bounding around for a few hours I decided I needed to cool down in the conveniently flowing nearby stream. After some altercation with the Mrs it turned out she seemed much happier with this than she was with the muddy puddles of last month and thankfully I didn't have to put up with that embarrassing bath routine when we returned home. By the way you may be interested to learn that the dictionary I swallowed last month has now been completely digested and my language has returned to barking simplicity....

Despite what you may read about the problems of Home Care in the press, there are companies who pride themselves on offering a reliable quality service but who also give back to the local community. St. Michael's Home Care is owned, managed and governed by well-regarded local charity St. Michael's Hospice. Its aim: to improve home care in North Hampshire and act as an additional source of income generation for the Hospice's charitable service.

I should at this point emphasise the service delivered by St. Michael's Home Care is open to all and not restricted to those suffering from life-limiting conditions. Home Care services available are varied and tailored to suit individual's needs; this allows the delivery of a flexible service designed exclusively for our clients facilitating the highest quality of life attainable.

Our care is delivered in the comfort and security of your home by a small and dedicated team of highly skilled carers who will support you with everyday tasks from cooking, to cleaning, chatting to companionship. St. Michael's Home Care can support you to maintain your independence, help you get back on your feet after an operation or even provide live-in care.

Whatever support you need I would be delighted to offer you advice and discuss all the potential options with you. We are here to help you, and I very much look forward to hearing from you soon. Please call us on 0345 4504015, email info@stmichaelshomecare.co.uk or to read more visit our website: stmichaelshomecare.co.uk.

Frederick James Banbury killed at Jutland

James Banbury of Baughurst married Elizabeth Nash of Tadley in 1889 in Kingsclere, James was then aged 23 years and Elizabeth just 20 years. James was working as a general labourer. Initially they lived in Back Lane in the parish of Pamber, but by 1911 they were living in 'The Cottage' in Pamber Green about 40 yards off the current A340 (East side). It was believed to be a single-story thatch and brick dwelling with a well just outside the back door; the house had 4 rooms, including the kitchen, and about 1 acre of land; some of the foundations are still discernible. The well was marked on older OS maps.

They had a total of seven children, the oldest was Frederick James, born in 1889, he joined the Royal Navy.

HMS Tipperary was a 1700 ton Faulknor-class Destroyer built by J.Samuel White at Cowes, it was originally ordered by the Chilean government but was appropriated by the Royal Navy when launched on 5th March 1915; being powered by 6 steam turbines delivering 30,000shp it had a top speed of 32 knots. Its armaments were 6x4inch guns and 2x21inch torpedo tubes. In May 1916 it was made leader of the 4th Flotilla out of Harwich in support of the Grand Fleet which was based in the Firth of Forth and Scapa

Flow in the Orkneys. Frederick James Banbury was a stoker 1st Class on the Tipperary

In the early hours of 1st June 1916, at the Battle of Jutland, in the dark and in poor visibility (June is a bad month for sea fog) some of the destroyers had great difficulty identifying some ships, closing to about 1000yards they challenged the ships and were confronted with the retreating German fleet, they fired torpedoes at close range. Some of the destroyers were badly damaged and the bridge of HMS Tipperary was destroyed by a salvo of the 6-inch guns of the German Dreadnought SMS Westfalen (20,670 tons, launched 1st July 1908).

With a complement of 197 personnel only 12 survived and Frederick Banbury, being a Stoker, would have been in the engine room when it was sunk.

The remnants of HMS Tipperary are classed as a WW1 war grave site.

The British Grand Fleet comprised 52 main ships while the German fleet was around 40 vessels. In the battle the Royal Navy lost 14 ships and some 6000 personnel while the German fleet lost 9 ships and about 2500 personnel.

The bodies of more than 80 Royal Navy seamen were washed ashore on the northwest coast of Jutland and were buried in a mass grave as none had any identification; although one crew member, Able Seaman Cook, was identified and buried in the local village churchyard with 1500 local people attending the funeral.

Frederick James Banbury is remembered on the Pamber Priory Memorial and on the Royal Navy Memorial in Portsmouth.

Long-Term Sick Leave? Know Your Rights

Millions of employees in the UK each year go on long-term sick leave whether through accident, injury, disease or work-related stress. For employees or employers dealing with sick leave of longer than a few months it is important they understand the rights and possible consequences of the absence.

Here are my top five 'must know' long-term sickness legal points:

1. Dismissal – if the employee has two years' service or more the employer must follow a fair process before terminating employment on the grounds of long-term sick leave (i.e. capability). A fair process usually involves consultation, thorough medical investigation and consideration of whether they can reasonably wait longer if a return is likely or, if not, consideration of other options e.g. alternative employment that can be offered. If an employer reaches the point where dismissal is contemplated they should invite the employee to attend a formal capability or 'disciplinary' meeting, informing the employee of their right to be accompanied and warning that dismissal is a possible outcome. Any subsequent dismissal would usually be with paid notice.
2. Constructive dismissal – some employees will find themselves on long-term sick leave because of the conduct of their employer. Such conduct may amount to a fundamental breach of contract and give rise to a constructive dismissal claim. However, if an employee waits too long to resign whilst off sick they may be taken as having affirmed their contract and waived their rights to such a claim.
3. Disability discrimination – if the employee's mental or physical condition amounts to a legal disability under the Equality Act 2010 (i.e. lasts 12 months or more or is a deemed disability such as cancer and it has a substantial adverse effect on their ability to carry out day-to-day activities) an employer has a duty to make reasonable adjustments to an employee's role if it will prevent them from being placed at a substantial disadvantage.
4. Holiday pay – employees (or workers) who are on long-term sick leave continue to accrue and carry over their basic statutory holiday entitlement (20 days per annum for full-time employees) whilst they are on long-term sick leave and are entitled to pay in lieu of this on termination. Present case law suggests that an employee is entitled to be paid for accrued basic entitlement for an 18 month period.
5. Permanent Health Insurance – if an employee has the benefit of Permanent Health Insurance which (although policies vary) usually pays out 50-75% of their salary after 26 weeks, the employer would be acting in breach of contract if by terminating the employment this benefit would be lost.

Claims arising out of long-term sick leave are usually complex and potentially high value. If you are on long-term sick leave and feel that you have been treated unfairly or if you are concerned about a member of your staff on long term sick leave you can contact Karen Bristow on 01256 854670 karen.bristow@phillips-law.co.uk or Gill Brown on 01256 854605 gill.brown@phillips-law.co.uk
